Dear Sir/Madam

Law is the foundation of every society, and it develops abiding Citizens, Lawyers, Academicians and aspiring Judges. Legal Education in India refers to education of lawyers before their entry into practice. IME law college, known for excellence in Legal Education nurtured through perseverance, persistence and dedication of the faculty, has been imparting quality education since 2002.

The college is running integrated courses for under graduates i.e B.COM LLB (5years) & BALLB (5 Years) having a vibrant amalgam of law with Arts and Commerce whereas LLB (3years) program is designed for graduates.

These courses are BCI approved and affiliated to CCS University, Meerut and designed to grasp the knowledge of all the developing fields of Law such as Cyber Law, Intellectual Property Law, Banking law and Insurance Law, Corporate Law and Socio-economic Legislations in a comprehensive manner with twin objectives to serve the public and individual as well.

Extra Curricular Activities

Each IME law student has to take part in various events organized by the college. The events are - Practical training in the court; moot court competition; class room presentation & legal workshop; Visit to Police Station; Visit to Prisons; Guest lectures from legal Luminaries; Seminars on various aspects of law; Debate competition; Law Day; Human Rights Day Celebration; Educational tours, etc.

Legal Aid Camp

IME Law College regularly organizes legal aid camps to provide free legal aid, particularly to rural people and guide them to resolve their legal problems.

Legal Literacy Camp

IME Law College regularly organizes legal literacy camp to spread legal awakening among rural people and make them aware about the law and legal procedure.

Moot Court

The training for Moot Court is imparted to the law students of final year in well organized moot court. The other students are allowed to participate in moot court competitions and observe proceedings as well.
